

Art of Hosting conversations that matter

TRAINING IN PARTICIPATORY LEADERSHIP

Otavan Opisto, Mikkeli, Finland 6th - 8th May 2013

How do we bring out the best in groups,
bring more meaning into our life and work
and foster innovation?

3-day training in participatory leadership in practice

We will work with, demonstrate, practice and explore how participatory methodologies can be used as a foundation for leadership and learning in groups, teams, communities and organisations.

The training includes:

- Hosting conversations as a core leadership and learning practice
- Participatory processes, methods and tools (such as Circle, World Cafe, Appreciative Inquiry, Theory U, Storytelling and Open Space)
- Working with questions relevant to your specific context
- An invitation to a network supporting you in your practice

Who should come?

Leaders, managers, facilitators, trainers, teachers, consultants, social innovators, entrepreneurs, community and youth workers - people who are interested in arranging their work, their teams and their organisations in more participatory and meaningful ways.

Registrations due to 15th April

Places are limited, so sign up early!

Fees 480€-230€

The Art of Hosting

AOH is based on bringing stakeholders together in conversation in order to find solutions for the common good.

When human beings are invited to work together on what truly matters to them, when self organizing space is opened, people will take ownership and responsibility for moving their issues and ideas into wiser actions and innovative solutions that last.

The AOH is more than a training program. It is response to a world that is becoming increasingly complex and fragmented, where solutions and innovations lie not in one leader or one viewpoint, but in the bigger picture of collective intelligence.

Hosts

The program will be hosted by a team of local and international practitioners, including Monica Nissen, Jan Hein Nielsen, Tanja Korvenmaa, Ville Keränen, Alexandra Boethius, Hanna-Riikka Tuhkanen, Kirsi Joenpolvi, Ville Venäläinen and Jan-Erik Tarpila.

What conceptions of leadership do we hold?
How may I lead myself so I may lead others?
How do we nourish 'new leadership' qualities?
What is needed to transition from individual to group leadership?
How do we create and host spaces for collaborative learning?
